Been working on this non stop. Very strange ~ I check everything off and send to myself and it comes through with some but not all checked off. Finally took some screen shots so see if you can read this. I think it has to do with having Apple computer, tablet and phone. very frustrating but hopefully this works. Let me know...

	great support system with her family. This is a young, active mom and son who would welcome a puppy or young de their home and make it part of their family. Bonnie and I would both leave our dogs with them.
